풍경을만들다 | 2010/12/17 20:43 | 풍경을만들다

Just a few more days to go before the winners of the DawnTown Miami 2010 competition will be announced at an award ceremony this Friday. This year's edition of the annual public international architecture ideas competition for Downtown Miami invited creative designs for a new seaplane airport on an island in downtown Miami.

Bustler will of course keep you updated on the final winner announcement, but if you cannot wait until Friday to have a look at some of the submitted designs, we have put together some of our favorite 2010 entries for you (see ALL entries in this Flickr set hosted by DawnTown Miami).
