WELCOME

Thank you for your interest in the DAWNTOWN DESIGN/BUILD 2 competition. This brief provides information will go over the rules for eligibility, the submission requirements, and give a time line as to when finalists will be announced.

ABOUT DAWNTOWN

DawnTown is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting architecture in Miami. The organization consists of a diverse group of individuals who care about the city's architectural context. Through the development and management of interactive programming, DawnTown functions as activists on architecture. Our goal is to educate the people on exciting new design possibilities for Miami, promote the talents of local and foreign designers, and showcase Miami's architecture scene to the rest of the world

ABOUT DESIGN/BUILD

DawnTown began in 2007 as a lecture on "The Future of Cities". The lecture came at an interesting time as Miami was still midway through its construction boom, and much was debated about how fast and how far the city would grow. By the following year, the organization had evolved its programming by hosting annual architectural design competitions. Each competition focused on a particular building or space within the city that was neglected, abandoned, or underused.

In 2012, DawnTown grew its programming from ideas to reality with the inaugural Design / Build competition. The competition received over 100 entries from across the world, and selected one multinational team as the winner. Now building up on that success, we are proud to announce: DAWNTOWN DESIGN/BUILD 2. Designers will once again be given an opportunity to submit a proposal and, if chosen, awarded with a construction budget to build a temporary installation in downtown Miami. DawnTown encourages both young, up and coming firms, individuals, and established practices to present forth innovative examples of architecture in this opening round of submissions.

OVERVIEW

The competition will be done in three(3) phases.

Phase 1: Open Call for Portfolios

We are looking for the best and brightest designers out there. The open call seeks to attract the attention of designers who are both “up and coming” as well as seasoned veterans in design. We are not looking to highlight the career of an established architect, but be a catalyst that pushes a design career forward

Phase 2: Finalists

A select group will be chosen, and given the program requirements, budget restrictions, and timeline for design. The jury will decide how many finalists will be selected; there is no set number. Finalists will be given a schedule to follow in order to turn in their designs in a timely manner.

Phase 3: Winner Selected

The final phase where a winning design will be chosen among from the finalist.

GRAND PRIZE

The winner will be given a construction budget, and have the opportunity to develop their winning idea.

ELIGIBILITY

- The competitions is open to all architects, artists, and other individuals involved in similar design professions. Industrial designers, landscape artists, engineers, interior designers, landscape architects, builders, furniture makers, and urban designers are just some of the few examples.
- The competition is open to professionals, and graduate student / undergraduate students in their final year of study in their respective field.
- Competitors may enter in teams (maximum size of 6) or individually. Teams can be international and multinational (ex: a team that consists of members located in the U.S. and Australia would be an example of multinational)
- The competition is free to enter!

HOW TO ENTER/REGISTER

To enter into the competition, you must submit a maximum six (6) page PDF portfolio that includes the following information:

- one (1) page with the name of the individual competing or list of team members. The individual and/or team will include a thumbnail and a brief description about themselves.
- one (1) page statement that describes the individual's and/or team's design philosophy and intent. Maximum two hundred (200) words. Please keep it to one page, one paragraph.
- up to four (4) pages of creative work. Work samples can be of built or un-built projects. Research can be included in the samples. Your work samples should indicate a sense of diversity and creativity.

PDF's should be formatted to the diagrams starting on page 6. Once your information is organized, all PDF's must be sent to registration@dawntown.org. Once you submit your PDF, you will receive a reply with a confirmation number. This number will be placed on your materials for judging.

When submitting PDF's please write the following in the subject field: DawnTown DB2

JUDGING

Materials will be collected by DawnTown staff and numbered. DawnTown uses a blind judging system, where none of the jury members know the identities of the designers. This achieved by only reviewing the design philosophy and intent page, and the four samples of creative work. None of those pages should include the name of the individual(s)/team or any other information that may reveal the identity of the entrant. Phase 1 judging will be handled by DawnTown Board Members.
